Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claim 1-21, 24-25 are allowed over the prior art of record.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 22-23, 26-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Reza et al. (hereinafter "Reza", US Patent Publication 2002/0085549).

As per claim 22, Reza discloses a data packet configured for use in a data communication network having at least one client server and a plurality of recipient servers, the data packet comprising a data segment indicating a destination port number (paragraph [0042]).

As per claim 23, Reza discloses the data packet according to claim 22 further comprising a second data segment that indicates a service port number to which the client server shall redirect subsequent data packets (paragraphs [0042-0043]).

As per claim 26, Reza discloses a data packet configured for use in a data communication network having at least one client server and a plurality of recipient servers, the data packet comprising:

- A first data segment indicating a destination port number (paragraph [0040]);
- A second data segment indicating whether the client server is configured to provide port redirection (paragraphs [0041-0042]);
- A third data segment that enables the recipient servers to acknowledge that the client server is configured to provide port redirection (paragraphs [0041-0042]).

As per claim 27, Reza discloses the data packet according to claim 24 further comprising a fourth data segment that indicates a service port number to which the client server shall redirect subsequent data packets (paragraph [0042]).

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
